

SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

With the Okanagan College School of Business, you won't just be learning business, you'll be doing business. The real world demands more than just book smarts. In OC's Business program, you'll gain the skills necessary to hit the ground running come graduation. We have industry-accomplished faculty who provide a current and relevant curriculum that meets the up-to-date needs of today's marketplace.

"I had an amazing experience at Okanagan College with some of my favourite memories being from the friendships I made. The professors provided the best guidance and support, not only in courses but also in my career path. The numerous networking opportunities provided at OC were also invaluable in setting me up where I am now."

Melanie Shum, BBA, CPA, Enterprise Audit Manager, KPMG

As a graduate of the Okanagan College School of Business, you'll be in high demand. Our alumni have found success in every industry from aviation to manufacturing to everything in between and beyond. Where will your credential take you?

"My time at Okanagan College School of Business was a launch pad for my career. I found the Business program was set up for students to go beyond a textbook and apply our learning in the context of real-world scenarios."

Meaghan Barnard, BBA, Partnership Executive, Dick Johnson Racing

A distinguishing feature of our programs is our optimal class sizes – no more than 40 - which facilitate the personal mentoring and the essential teamwork that larger classes can't provide.

Our program also features:

- Project-based learning: From day one you'll be engaging with community organizations and local businesses.
- The ability to choose your own path: Choose the path that leads to your personal goals.
- Bridging: Our Diploma programs allow you to bridge to our Bachelor of Business (BBA) degree.

Sharpen your skills, socialize with your peers, and engage with the community in the Accounting Club, the Okanagan Business Students' Association, the Human Resources Management Club, and the Marketing Club or one of the many prestigious competition teams. Imagine yourself competing on the world stage, as you bring your entrepreneurial spirit to the Enactus team while having a positive impact on the local community.
